Spelling list: Characters from An Inspector Calls

An Inspector Calls by J.B. Priestley is a three-act play set in early 20th-century England. The mysterious Inspector Goole arrives at the Birling family home to interrogate them about their involvement in a young woman's death. As the truth unravels, the play explores themes of responsibility, social inequality, and the consequences of one's actions.

Arthur Birling is the husband of Sybil and father to Sheila and Eric.

Birling Arthur Birling is a man in his mid-fifties.

Gerald Croft is engaged to Sheila Birling.

Croft Gerald Croft works for his father's company, 'Croft's Limited'.

Sheila Arthur Birling is the husband of Sybil and father to Sheila and Eric.

Sybil Arthur Birling is the husband of Sybil and father to Sheila and Eric.

Eric Birling is Arthur's son who also works for Birling and Company.

Inspector The school inspector sat at the back of the class.

Goole Inspector Goole wears a plain dark suit.

Edna Edna is the parlour maid.

Eva Smith supposedly worked at Birling and Company.

Smith Ms. Smith was unaware of the spider above her head.