Spelling list: Tier 2 Words (gender - hypothesis)

Tier 2 words are less common than high frequency (Tier 1) words. They are often integral to the comprehension of exam questions or core subject knowledge.

gender	The word gender is used to describe a range of internal identities, some of which are expressed in terms of masculinity or femininity.
generate	If you generate something, it means you produce or make it.
generation	A generation is all of the people who were born and living around the same time.
gigantic	If something is gigantic , it means it is very large.
global	Global means involving the entire earth.
goal	A goal is an aim or target.
grade	A grade is a particular position or degree of value.
grant	If you grant something to someone, you agree to let them have it.
granted	If something is granted , it is agreed to or allowed.
guarantee	A guarantee is an unconditional commitment that something will happen or that something is true.
guidelines	Guidelines are rules or principles that provide guidance to appropriate behaviour.
hence	Hence is a word used to introduce a logical conclusion.
hierarchical	If something is hierarchical , it means its a system that ranks people or things based on a set criteria.
highlighted	If something has been highlighted , it means it has had special attention drawn to it.
	A word that is pronounced or spelt similarly to another word is called a homonym   homonym .

hypothesis   A hypothesis is a proposal intended to explain certain facts or observations, used as the starting point of an experiment.