

Spelling list: Tier 2 Words (anxious - assurance)

Tier 2 words are less common than high frequency (Tier 1) words. They are often integral to the comprehension of exam questions or core subject knowledge.

anxious	If you are anxious , it means you are feeling or showing worry or unease.
apparent	If something is apparent , it means it is clear to see and understand.
appendix	An appendix is a collection of extra information and materials at the end of a book.
appreciation	Appreciation is the recognition of the good things about someone or something.
approach	An approach is the idea or action you intend to use to deal with a problem or situation.
appropriate	If something is appropriate , it means it is suitable for a particular person, place, or condition.
approximate	If something is approximate , it means it is close or similar but not necessarily exact.
arbitrary	If something is arbitrary , it means it is random or based on individual preference.
area	An area is a subject of study.
arrive	If you arrive somewhere, it means you reach there after travelling.
aspects	Aspects are the distinct features or elements of something.
assembly	An assembly is a group of people who are gathered together for a common purpose.
assess	If you assess something, it means you evaluate its nature, quality, or ability.
assessment	An assessment is a way of testing someone's ability.

assign	If you assign a job to someone, it means you make them responsible for its completion.
assistance	If you give someone assistance , it means you help them by sharing their work.
assume	If you assume something, it means you accept it without verification or proof.
assurance	An assurance is a statement intended to inspire confidence.