

Spelling list: Non-statutory words: n before k

Example non-statutory curriculum words: the sound spelt n before k bank                      Counterfeit bank notes have been forged.

think                     I think he would make a great President.

honk                      You should only honk your car horn when necessary.

sunk                      Two ships were sunk in the typhoon.