

Spelling list: Initial consonant blends - set 4

Are you ready to explore initial consonant blends? The words in this list begin with two consonants that merge blend together to create a new sound. Click on the speaker icon beside each word to here these initial consonant blends pronounced.

- plug                    I plug my phone into the socket to charge.
- grab                    Can you grab some milk on your way home?
- plot                    We have a small plot of land.
- drag                    Will you help us drag the boat up the beach?
- grip                    Grip the handle with both hands.
- drug                    Morphine is a drug given to relieve intense pain.
- spit                    Be careful not to let the fire spit on you.
- scan                    Scan the bar code to find the price.
- drop                    He tried not to drop the ball.