

Spelling list: Final consonant blends - set 2

This list of final consonant blends brings you essential words to boost spelling skills. A final consonant blend consists of two or more consonants at the end of a word, like nd in sand . You can hear the sound of each consonant when the word is pronounced. This list will help students recognise common word endings, while making learning practical and engaging.

sand                    The children played in the sand pit.

nest                    There is a bird nest in the tree.

band                    I play drums in a band .

lamp                    The lamp was hot.

sink                    The sink had a leak.

link                    Click on the link to see my pictures.

tank                    There were six fish in the tank .

hand                    He caught the ball with one hand .