

Spelling list: Final consonant blends + s

Explore words with final consonant blends that end in s, like plurals and verb forms. A final consonant blend is when two or more consonants appear at the end of a word, such as ks in links. These words are essential for understanding how blends function in various grammatical contexts. Learn them using the activities below.

| | |
|-------|---|
| lamps | The room was lit with several lamps . |
| helps | His mother helps him put is coat on. |
| gifts | We spent Christmas Day opening our gifts . |
| bumps | The accident left them with a few bumps and bruises. |
| banks | The banks in our area close on Sundays. |
| links | I will send you some links to the websites. |
| melts | Ice cream melts in the sun. |
| sends | My mother sends her love. |