Spelling list: Characters in The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde

The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson is a haunting tale of duality. Dr. Jekyll's experiments lead to the creation of Mr. Hyde, his sinister alter ego. As Jekyll battles with his dark desires and the consequences of his actions, the novella explores the nature of good and evil.

Utterson Gabriel John Utterson is a middle-aged lawyer.

Enfield Richard Enfield is a distant cousin and lifelong friend of Mr. Utterson.

Lanyon Dr. Hastie Lanyon was formerly one of Jekyll's closest friends.

Hastie Dr. Hastie Lanyon is a reputable London doctor.

Dr. Henry Jekyll is a respected doctor and friend of both Lanyon and Jekyll

Utterson.

Hyde Edward Hyde is a strange, repugnant man who looks faintly pre-human.

Danvers Sir Danvers Carew is well-liked old nobleman.

Poole Richard Poole is Jekyll's butler.

Gabriel John Utterson is the narrator of the book.

Carew Sir Danvers Carew is a member of Parliament, and a client of Utterson.

Guest Mr. Guest is Utterson's clerk and confidant.