

Spelling list: GCSE Religious Studies: Religion, Human Rights, and Social Justice 2

Key words for GCSE Religious Studies.

justice	Justice means fairness.
loan	A loan is any amount of money that is borrowed from a lender.
people	People trafficking is the illegal transportation of people from one area to another.
positive	Positive discrimination is favouring a person or group to try and make up for past treatment.
poverty	Poverty is living without the essential things for a reasonable quality of life.
prejudice	Prejudice means pre-judging some one based on their characteristics.
racial	Racial prejudice is judging someone negatively based on their ethnicity.
responsibility	Responsibility is the duty we have to look after and support ourselves.
rights	Human rights include education, equality and access to food and water.
social	Social justice means making sure that everyone has the equal opportunities and access to education.
trafficking	People trafficking often results in exploitation.
wealth	Wealth refers to the money and possessions a person has.